About the Cover

"A Dandy's Toilette," a series engravings by George Cruikshank, was originally published by Thomas Tegg, in 1819 in a book entitled The corset, A cultural History. A series of watercolor drawings based on the engravings are in the collection of Historic Deerfield. They are titled: Shaving!!! (left), Stays!!! (middle), and Last Touches!!! (right).

An article on the Cumberland Corset, a popular man's foundation garment that is little known today outside Regency romance novels, begins on page 25.
